Forecast for Sunday 02 Jun 2024

Weather: Any low cloud or valley mist and fog patches quickly clear to leave many places with a sunny morning. Through the afternoon cloudier conditions will gradually arrive, leaving a mostly dry, cloudy evening with some patchy light drizzle for the highest summits.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 95% although possibly 30% for northern slopes at first and 70% from late afternoon.

Low Cloud and visibility: Isolated areas of low cloud are possible across northern areas at first, lowering to 400-500m, and then lifting through the morning. Perhaps some patchy cloud and drizzle developing across tops above 500-700m from late afternoon and evening. Visibility good to very good, but poor or very poor at first in any drizzle, mist or fog patches.
